A senior citizen drove his brand new Porsche Boxster out of the car salesroom. Taking off down the motorway, he floored it to 160kmh, enjoying the wind blowing through what little hair he had left. "Amazing!" he thought as he flew down the N1, enjoying pushing the pedal to the metal even more. Looking in his rear view mirror, he saw a police car behind him, blue lights flashing and siren blaring. "I can get away from him - no problem!" thought the elderly nutcase as he floored it to 180kmh, then 220 then 240kmh. Suddenly, he thought, "What on earth am I doing? I'm too old for this nonsense!" So he pulled over to the side of the road and waited for the police car to catch up with him.

Pulling in behind him, the police officer walked up the driver's side of the Porsche, looked at his watch and said, "Sir, my shift ends in 10 minutes. Today is Friday and I'm taking off for the weekend. If you can give me a reason why you were speeding that I've never heard before, I'll let you go."

The old man, looked very seriously at the policeman, and replied, "Years ago, my wife ran off with a policeman. I thought you were bringing her back..."

"Have a good day, Sir", said the policeman

Think outside the box...

An old man wanted to plant a tomato garden, but it was difficult work, as the ground was hard. His only son, Vincent, who used to help him, was in prison, and so the old man wrote a letter to his son:

Dear Vincent,
I am feeling sad because I won't be able to plant my tomato garden this year. I'm too old already. I know if you were here, you would happily dig the plot for me, like in the old days.
Love, Papa

A few days later, he received a letter from his son.

Dear Papa,
Don't dig up that garden. That's where the bodies are buried.
Love, Winnie

At 4 am the next morning, FBI agents and police arrived and dug up the entire area without finding any bodies. They apologised to the old man and left.

That day, he received another letter from his son:

Dear Papa,
Go ahead and plant the tomatoes now. That's the best I could do under the circumstances.
Love, Winnie

Customer: 'I've been calling 700-1000 for two days and can't get through; can you help?'
Operator: 'Where did you get that number, sir?'
Customer: 'It's on the door of your business.'
Operator: 'Sir, those are the hours that we are open.'

Customer: 'OK.'
Tech Support: 'Did you get a pop-up menu?'
Customer: 'No.'

Customer: 'No.'
Tech Support: 'OK, sir. Can you tell me what you have done up until this point?'
Customer: 'Sure. You told me to write 'click' and I wrote 'click'.'

Then there was the caller who asked for a knitwear company in Woven.
Operator: 'Woven? Are you sure?'
Caller: 'Yes... That's what it says on the label -- Woven In Scotland ...'

ZIPLOC OMELETTE FUN!!!

Crack 2 eggs (large or extra-large) into the bag (not more than 2) shake to combine them, or whip prior in a small bowl.

Put out a variety of ingredients such as: cheeses, ham, onion, green pepper, tomato, hash browns, salsa, etc.

Each guest adds prepared ingredients of choice to their bag and shake. Make sure to get the air out of the bag and zip it up.

Place the bags into, boiling water for exactly 13 minutes [we did 15 minutes]. You can usually cook 6-8 omelets in a large pot. For more, make another pot of boiling water.

Open the bags and the omelet will roll out easily. Be prepared for everyone to be amazed!
(Careful of the heat escaping)
